COURIER POINTS.

Never exaggerate.
Never point at another.
Never betray a confidence.
Never wantonly frighten others.
A flow of words is no proof of wisdom.
Never laugh at the misfortune of others.
Never neglect to call upon your friends.
Never leave home without kind words.
Never give a promise that you do not fulfill.
Never speak much of your performances.

A girl has a very warm way of being cold to a man she likes.

Women and opportunity like to make calls when you are out.

A woman's head will always turn with the bonnet that is past.

Bad luck occasionally appears to be a good thing—after it's over.

Many a man who thinks he is self-made is in reality wife-made.

"Know thyself," and also ascertain how you are rated by others.

Diplomatic silence is often the strongest protest that can be offered.

Talk less and think more. This is good advice to give, but hard to take.

An undertaker's salesroom might be appropriately termed a box office.

It sometimes happens that the man who keeps his mouth shut speaks the loudest.

If you find that wealth doesn't make you happy you can easily get rid of it.

Matrimony is a paying institution—for ministers and divorce lawyers.

A woman may admit that her husband gets tight, but never that her shoes are.

No wonder a yacht jumps up and down when it is forced to get on another track.

He who can take no interest in what is small, will take false interest in what is great.

Many a man who wakes up and finds himself famous goes to bed again and sleeps it off.

When a girl starts out to get engaged she leaves no stone unturned—not even a solitaire.

People in a flirtation are moderately safe until they agree with each other to be good about it.

An Irish philosopher says the trouble with some men is that they can't believe half the lies they tell.

Some speculators are anxious to get in on the ground floor, but there are others who prefer to climb porches.

After it became apparent that clothing was the correct thing it was Eve who said to Adam: "I told you so."

A nice thing about getting licked is you know how the other fellow would feel if it had happened to him.

When a girl weeps she thinks she gets a light on her lashes that shines like a rainbow, but what she gets is a red nose.

Man wants but little here below, but when he fails to get it he howls just as much as if he wanted the earth.

Although a soft answer may turn away wrath, there are times when one derives more satisfaction from calling a man a liar.

It is feared that Humphrey Lynch of Mt. Leonard met with a serious and perhaps fatal accident Saturday morning. While he and his wife and little daughter and Mrs. Phil Kellett were going to the burial of Dennis Lynch's little child his horses became frightened, crossing the iron bridge west of T. B. Prior's and became unmanageable. The ladies all jumped out of the carriage and the horses ran off. Mr. Lynch was thrown out and dragged some distance, rendering him unconscious. Mr. Rutherford and son came to his assistance and Mr. Lynch was carried to Mr. Rutherford's, and a doctor immediately sent for. Three ribs were broken and it is feared the old gentleman is hurt internally. The other occupants of the carriage escaped unhurt with the exception of a good scare and shaking up.

Duroc Jersey Hogs for Sale.

Thomas Gillespie completed the annual enumeration of white school children in Chillicothe Tuesday. The figures show that there are 747 male and 835 female pupils liable to attend the public school, making a total of 1,582. The census of colored students has not been completed. The enumeration of 1904 showed 1,575 school children in Chillicothe.

Terrific Race with Death.

"Death was fast approaching" writes Ralph F. Fernandez of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit until I began to use Elecrit Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and to-day I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at O. B. Anderson & Son's drug store. Price, 50c.

An attack of smallpox that threatened to wipe out the large herd of sheep belonging to D. Owen of the north part of Livingston county is now under the control of a veterinary surgeon, and the manner in which the disease, so unusual to animals, was contracted is the cause of interesting talk among local physicians. About two months ago some of the Owen family were stricken with smallpox. During their confinement three pet lambs were allowed around the house. Not long afterwards Mr. Owen noticed the sheep were suffering and a doctor was called. He pronounced the disease smallpox and the animals were quarantined. They were affected precisely as humans.

Sunday evening about 8 o'clock Osa Vandiver, an adopted girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hammett of Huntsville, ran away and was captured about 3 1-2 miles southeast of Brunswick by Marshal John Ryals and Ed Sears of Huntsville at the residence of J. W. Neason early Wednesday morning and returned to the Hammett home. The girl is 16 years old and rather large for her age. She was taken from an orphan's home in St. Louis about two years ago and until the present occurrence has always seemed to be very quiet and unassuming. Immediately after her disappearance a search was inaugurated and lasted until Wednesday when she was traced to Mr. Neason's house. She was willing to go back and was sorry she had run away. She will probably be returned to St. Louis.

Neuralgia And Other Pain.

All pain in any disease is nerve pain, the result of a turbulent condition of the nerves. The stabbing, lacerating, darting, burning, agonizing pain that comes from the prominent nerve branches, or sensory nerves, is neuralgia, and is the "big brother" of all the other pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills rarely ever fail to relieve these pains by soothing these larger nerves, and restoring their tranquility.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills leave no bad after-effects, and are a reliable remedy for every kind of pain, such as headache, backache, stomachache, sciatica, rheumatism and neuralgia. They also relieve Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Car-Sickness, and Distress after eating.

"For many years I have been a constant sufferer from neuralgia and headache, and have never been able to obtain any relief from various headache powders and capsules, until I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They always cure my headache in five minutes time." FRED R. SWINGLEY, Cashier 1st Nat. Bank, Atkinson, Neb.
Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

L. B. THRASH.

The severe wind and hail storm that swept the country Monday afternoon did considerable damage both to property and crops. No hail fell in Keytesville but it is reported to have wrought great havoc to farmers living as near as a mile north of town. Young corn especially suffered from the hail but in this part of the county very little noticeable damage was done by the wind. At Salisbury the wind was stronger and the roof on the school house was blown in. Further north and west at Chillicothe, Livingston county, the wind was very high and Gentry Bros. show tent was blown down while a performance was going on, but no one was seriously injured. At Mooresville just north of Chillicothe, several buildings were completely destroyed and Joseph Roberts, home where 100 people were present attending a funeral, was wrecked. Several were injured but none seriously.

A Pointer for Tool Buyers.

There is probably nothing in which quality is more important than in tools. Yet the quality of a tool is not apparent to the eye, and even the experienced buyer must take chances unless he relies upon a brand which guarantees reliability.

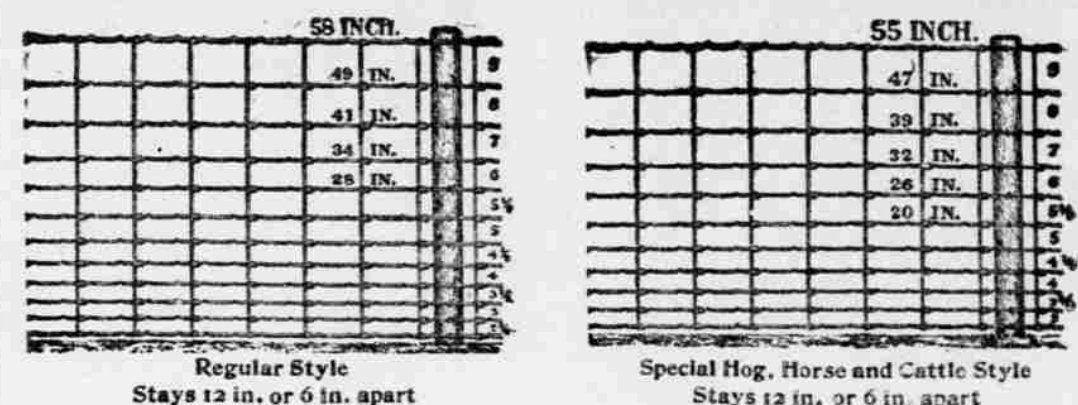

But there is really no need for any one to buy any kind of tool blindly. The Keen Kutter brand which has represented the standard of America for 36 years, covers every kind of tool. By simply keeping in mind when buying, the name Keen Kutter, any one may buy any sort of tool with full assurance of lasting satisfaction.

The Keen Kutter line of tools was awarded the Grand Prize at the World's Fair, St. Louis. This is the only award of the kind ever made to a complete line of tools.

If your dealer does not keep Keen Kutter Tools, you may make sure of being supplied by writing to the Simmons Hardware Co., St. Louis, or 298 Broadway, New York.
